

Author Guidelines

With regard to editorial criteria and bibliographic references, authors must refer:

- to the TSLR - Maroonbook of Chicago and to previous Volumes of the CLL (alternatively, authors can follow the 20th edition of the Bluebook. No other citation style is allowed);
- for complete guidelines and references guide, please see the following template.

Footnotes must be styled in this way:

Character: Calibri, 10, single line spacing.

Monograph citation

First citation:

J. BROWN (IN SMALL CAPITAL), Monograph title (italics), city, year, page number. NO PUBLISHERS' NAME

Following citation(s):

J. BROWN, Monograph title, cit., page number.

OR

J. BROWN, op. cit., page number (if just one contribution by J. Brown is cited).

Essay in an edited Volume:

First citation:

J. BROWN, Essay Title, in P. GREEN (ed.), Book title, city, year, page number.

Following citation(s):

J. BROWN, Essay title, cit., page number.

OR

J. BROWN, op. cit., page number (if just one contribution by J. Brown is cited).

Journal Articles:

First citation:

J. BROWN, Article Title, in Journal (name of the Journal without abbreviations), volume/issue, year, page number.

Following citation(s):

J. BROWN, Article title, cit., page number.

OR

J. BROWN, op. cit., page number (if just one contribution by J. Brown is cited).

Websites

www. (last visited dd/mm/yyyy).

PLEASE NOTE:

- AUTHOR (SMALL CAPS): initial of the name/ dot / space / surname-last name
- Multiple Authors separated with a comma (ie.: J. BROWN, P. GREEN)
- book title, essay title, article title, journal title: always in italics
- no publishers' names, just cities/places.

Template:

Title in Times New Roman, Regular, 13 Points, Centered, Single Line Spacing

Subtitle in Times New Roman, Regular, 11 Points, Centered, Single Line Spacing author's name and surname, calibri, 10, italic, centered, indentation: none^{1*}

Abstract of 150 to 300 words in Times New Roman, regular, 11 points, justified, single line spacing, no indentation.

Keyword 1; keyword 2; keyword 3; keyword 4; keyword 5. Five keywords in Times New Roman, regular, 11 points, justified, single line spacing, no indentation.

Summary: 1. Title of Paragraph 1. – 1.1. Title of Sub-Paragraph 1.1. – 1.2. Title of Sub-Paragraph 1.2. – 2. Title of Paragraph 2. – 3. Title of Paragraph 3. Times New Roman, regular, 11 points, justified, single line spacing, no indentation.

1. Paragraph Title in Times New Roman, Italic, 11 Points, Justified, Single Line Spacing, No Indentation, 6-Point Space After Paragraph Title.

1.1. Sub-Paragraph Title in the Same Style.

Body text in Times New Roman, regular, 11 points, justified, single line spacing, no indentation, 6-point space after paragraph...

... like this.

is an example of primary quotation”, while “secondary quotations ... must be placed ‘between single quotation marks’, like this”. Note that commas and periods go outside quotation marks.

The article must be formatted on A4 paper with a 2.5 cm margin on all sides. Page numbering bottom page right.

^{1*} Author's affiliation. Email address., calibri, 10, italics

All citations must be placed in footnotes; a final bibliography is required.

Legal citations should conform to Volume 86 of the Maroonbook, the style guide edited by the University of Chicago Law Review, which is available at:

<https://lawreview.uchicago.edu/maroonbook>

Alternatively, authors are invited to follow the 20th edition of the Bluebook. No other citation style will be allowed.